 2. Some of the youth had started serving in Sunday services. Please continue to pray that these experiences will help them understand the gospel more clearly, how Jesus came to serve us and give us life for our salvation. Pray also that these will create in them an attitude of Christlike service towards others.
 3. We have so far given out 4 applications for church membership. We hope those applicants are able to join our church family.

God bless you all in this time and lean on Him for strength and wisdom.
